SACRAMENTS

Sacrament of Baptism

Baptisms are celebrated the first and third Sunday of each month at 12:45 p.m. Parents are asked to call the Parish Office to schedule a date.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Confessions are heard every Saturday from 4:15 to 4:45 p.m. in the Church.

Sacrament of Marriage

Diocesan policy requires that couples participate in a marriage preparation program prior to their wedding. To ensure that all the necessary arrangements can be made, couples should contact the Parish Office at least one year in advance of their wedding date, and before any other plans have been made.

Sacrament of Holy Orders and Consecrated Life

Anyone interested in learning more about a life of service to the People of God as a priest, deacon, a religious brother or sister is encouraged to speak with Fr. Sean or call the Office of Vocations at (732) 562-1990.

TODAY'S GOSPEL...

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham pleads with the Lord, who planned to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah because of the evil and sin in those cities. Abraham asks him if he would spare the city if fifty, forty, thirty, twenty or even only ten innocent people were found there. God says that he would spare the cities even for the sake of only ten.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul explains to the Colossians that through baptism, they are raised to life with Christ because they believed in the power of the God who raised him from the dead. Even though they once lived in sin, their sins have been pardoned through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Jesus' disciples asked him how they should pray. He gave them some phrases similar to those now used in the Lord's prayer. Jesus also reminds the disciples how even men with sins are able to give good things to their children, and explains how much more the heavenly Father wants to give to us.

PERFECTION

“He that will have a perfect brother must resign himself to remaining brotherless.”

Italian Proverb

Why do those closest to us sometimes refuse to act the way we would like them to? Why aren't they always exactly the people we would like them to be?

We have many friends, and, oddly, not one of them is perfect. We love them all, however, as much for, as in spite of, their imperfections. Which is a good thing, for if we demanded perfection we would have no friends.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

THANK YOU...

Dear Fr. Sean,

I have been away and I apologize for the delay in sending you my sincere thanks. Kindly convey my appreciation for the donations received on behalf of the Diocese of Kohima. You have wonderful and generous parishioners.

In Prayer,

Fr. Abraham Drapankal

Jesus is a Friend Who Knows All Your Faults and Still Loves You Anyway.....

Matthew was a tax collector, a hated man among the Jews for helping Rome tighten its occupation. Even so...Jesus loved Matthew, and eventually chose him as one of His apostles.

Peter had a quick temper, his emotions easily triggered by circumstances. He denied knowing Jesus three times during the most critical hours of Jesus' life on earth. Even so...Jesus loved Peter and empowered him to lead the early Church.

Saul "made havoc" of the church in Jerusalem, leading raids on the homes of Christians and imprisoning the devout. He consented to the death of Stephen, and was one of the official witnesses of his execution. He even requested letters of authority to extend the persecution of the Church to other cities, including Damascus. Even so...Jesus loved Saul, appeared to him in a light from heaven, and called him to repentance.

No matter what a person may have done — no matter their character flaws — Jesus loves them. He loved them to the point of dying on their behalf on the Cross...including dying for your enemy...the friend or family member who disappoints you or frustrates you...indeed, including you.
