TODAY'S GOSPEL...

First Reading: Proverbs 8: 22-31

God created Wisdom before he created the earth or the skies. This spirit stood beside God every day until the earth was complete, then "found delight in the people of the earth." This indicates that the spirit of wisdom was later personified by Jesus.

Second Reading: Romans 5: 1-5

Paul says that we are now at peace with God through our faith in Jesus. We also hope to see the glory of God. This hope will not leave us disappointed because of the love God has shown in sending us the Holy Spirit.

Gospel: John 16: 12-15

Jesus tells the disciples that when he leaves them, a Spirit will help guide them to the truth. This Spirit will announce what he hears from Jesus, rather than speaking on his own. Everything God has also belongs to Jesus, which is why those things announced by the Spirit will actually come from Jesus.

YEAR OF THE PRIEST

(JUNE 2009-JUNE 2010)

O Jesus, eternal Priest,

Keep your priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them.

Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body.

Keep unsullied their lips,

daily purpled with Your Precious Blood.

Keep pure and unearthly their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the priesthood.

Let Your holy love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion.

Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here, and in heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown.

Amen.

HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT THE REVISED ROMAN MISSAL?

(Part III)

Why is there a need for a new translation of the words used at Mass?

With the major reform of the liturgy after Vatican Council II came the Mass in the vernacular languages. The Roman Missal reflecting all these changes was first issued in Latin by Pope Paul VI in 1970. In translating that text into English, a process of dynamic equivalence was used which allowed the translators some freedom in how to best express in English the meaning of the original Latin text both in how it would read and sound. As a result, the style of the English was, in part, less formal and more conversational and is what we use today at Mass.

A third edition of the Missal was promulgated by Pope John Paul II in the Jubilee Year 2000. Before it was translated into English, a new instruction called Liturgiam Authenticam was issued in 2001 by the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, which outlined the rules and principles of translation into the vernacular languages. This process requires the use of formal equivalence in translating such that the English reflects a truer translation of the original Latin. As a result, some of the words and phrases in the prayers and responses we currently say in English will be changing. For example, when the priest says, "The Lord be with you," our response will be "And with your spirit," a more accurate translation of "Et cum spiritu tuo." Although we will all need to learn the new wording of the responses and prayers, we gain some of the poetry and scriptural richness expressed in the original Latin which has been restored.
