

Calling All Cooks ...

In celebration of our Centennial Year,
Our Lady of the Mount Church is going to publish and sell a parish cookbook!

A collection of recipes and remembrances from our parish members, family and friends will preserve history, welcome new members, and create a renewed sense of unity.

The cookbook will contain well-loved, tried and true family favorites including appetizers, main dishes, desserts and more. Each recipe will list the contributor's name, enabling you to easily find the recipes of family and friends.

We invite each and every member of our parish to participate by sending in your favorite recipes. This is the perfect time of year to look through your favorite recipes as you prepare your holiday meals.

A blank "Recipe Collection Sheet" is enclosed in today's parish bulletin. Additional blank forms will be available at the Church entrances, distributed to our CCD students and on the parish Centennial website. Completed forms should be placed in the brightly colored boxes also located at the Church entrances, as well as in the CCD and Parish Offices.

Our parish cookbook is sure to become a lasting keepsake on your kitchen shelf!
